Elliott Bay Design Group Promotes John Reeves to Director of Business Development

SEATTLE, WA (June 1, 2020) – Elliott Bay Design Group (EBDG) is proud to announce that Senior Engineer, John Reeves has been promoted to Director of Business Development. John will oversee business development, generate leads, and provide leadership to the sales and marketing team.

Reeves joined EBDG in 2015 bringing extensive field experience gained through 23 years of operating and maintaining some of the most complex vessels in the U.S. Coast Guard fleet. John's wide-ranging background includes five years as port engineer and manager of four industrial repair facilities, serving as an Associate Professor at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, and more than a decade at-sea providing service on and maintenance of a variety of vessels, from military patrol and research vessels to the world's most powerful non-nuclear icebreaker.

"We look forward to the leadership John will provide and the direction he will take our company," says Brian King, President of EBDG. "He is a reputable leader within our company who has developed invaluable relationships with our clients."

Reeves graduated with honors from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy with a BS in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering. He also holds a MS in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering and an MSE in Mechanical Engineering, both from the University of Michigan. John is a member of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and the American Society of Naval Engineers. He has earned the Meritorious Service Medal as well as the Coast Guard Commendation Medal.
